

Sinclair Broadcasting is going to present anti-John Kerry biased political propaganda, "Stolen Honor," in an attempt to influence the outcome of the Presidential election without giving equal time to opposing positions. This clearly violates both the letter and spirit of the laws governing the free use of public airwaves.